Prayer Request
Week of Dec 3rd , 2017

We thank you for your prayer and your word of encouragement. As you gather in your prayer meeting/small groups; please specifically pray for breakthrough that the connections we have made for the past few months will lead to a meaningful relationship that could lead them to know Him. May the Lord give us the strength, wisdom, patience and love for the LRPG we are working with. Let us not to feel pressure and anxious in this early stage of church planting.

God never hurries. There are no deadlines against which He must work. Only to know this to quiet our spirits and relax our nerves. - A.W. Tozer
